Remarks:

Declaration:

I have been informed that the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany Riyadh reserves the right to ask for additional supporting documents and does not guarantee the issuance of the requested visa. In case of visa refusal, visa and service fees are not reimbursed.

I have also been informed that an application without a complete set of documents according to this checklist is considered incomplete and may result in a rejection of my visa application. I am aware that there is no obligation from the Embassy to ask for missing documents.

I have been further informed that even an issued visa is no guarantee to be allowed to enter the Schengen-area. The immigration police officers have the right and even obligation to recheck the purpose of your trip, your financial means and your willingness to return to Saudi-Arabia. You are therefore highly recommended to carry all relevant documents with you. In case of any doubts or if your travel purpose has changed since the visa issuance your entry to the Schengen area might be refused.

Kindly note that with a visa issued by the German Embassy you are expected to travel to Germany only. At least for the first trip Schengen-visas have to be used for going to the country which issued the visa.
